NEW AIRPORT TERMINAL
REVENUE BOND QUESTION

SHALL CITY DEBT BE INCREASED $64,000,000 WITH A
REPAYMENT COST OF $196,000,000, OR LESS, PAYABLE SOLELY OUT OF THE NET REVENUES DERIVED FROM THE OPERATION OF THE AIRPORT?

If approved, the City of Colorado Springs, Colorado shall be authorized to issue its interest-bearing revenue bonds, in one series or more, in the aggregate principal amount of not to exceed $64,000,000 for the purpose of improving the Municipal Airport by constructing a new airport terminal building and ancillary facilities; such bonds to be payable from all or a portion of the net revenues derived from the operation of the Municipal Airport, including, without limitation, any passenger facility charges received by the City on behalf of the Municipal Airport and to be issued and sold at one time or from time to time in such manner and amounts, maturing not later than thirty (30) years from the date or dates of each such issue, at such interest rates and upon such terms and conditions and with such covenants and agreements and with such other details as the City Council may determine, including at the option of the Council, without limitation, provisions for redemption of the bonds prior to maturity with or without the payment of a premium.
